The New Jersey Association of Women Business Owners (NJAWBO) is the oldest statewide organization in New Jersey with a mission to address the concerns and issues of business ownership by women. The organization's objectives are to encourage and support business ownership by women, enable women business owners to network, provide a legislative voice for the interests of women-owned businesses and provide entrepreneurial training and assistance. Since its' founding in 1978, the organization has grown to include 12 chapters across the state. Classes, seminars and informational events are offered to members and aspiring entrepreneurs through NJAWBO and NJAWBO's Women's Business Center.

For further information about NJAWBO or NJAWBO's Women's Business Center, call the state headquarters at (609) 581-2121, send an e-mail to njawbo@njawbo.org, or visit the organization's web site at www.njawbo.org.
